

Stolen Wages Settlement

Update 15, 11 September 2020

Welcome to our fifteenth Stolen Wages Settlement email update to claimants (workers under the Stolen Wages practices) and registered representatives (for deceased claimants).

Extension for submission of information

Almost 3,370 claimants and registered representatives had not provided their information to the Stolen Wages Information Centre by the deadline of 28 August 2020. On 8 September 2020 the Federal Court extended the deadline for these people to provide their bank account details and identification document (ID).

The new deadline is 5.00pm on 9 October 2020.

The deadline clock on the Stolen Wages Settlement website, www.stolenwages.com.au, has been reset.

No further extensions to the deadline will be granted.

We have now written for the second time to those claimants and registered representatives that have not provided their bank account details and ID, if they have a registered address. We will also be undertaking further community visits and attempting to contact people by telephone.

As a result of the extension by the Federal Court, the distribution statements that were to be issued by 6 September 2020 will now be issued after 9 October 2020. We apologise for the delay but it is important that we provide one final opportunity for claimants and registered representatives to provide their missing information and documents.

Payment date has not changed

While the Federal Court extended the time to provide bank account details and ID, the court did not extend the time for the payments to eligible claimants and registered representatives.

We still expect to make payments before 6 December 2020.

Please contact the Stolen Wages Information Centre if you have any queries.

Our website - www.stolenwages.com.au - is the place to go to for accurate and up to date information.
